

In 1975, shortly after performing this song during an epilogue at Lee Abbey, I mislaid the words; and the music was not written down. Out of the blue, I was contacted this summer of 2020 by someone I must have met at the time, who sent me the lost words, and asked if she might have a copy of the music. While the melody is as originally composed, the accompaniment is now written down for the first time. I'm not sure I would today compose the lyric as I did then, but it is highly expressive and deeply felt. I'm grateful to have been able to recover this lost song.
